* Please Note: The above prices reflect an air credit discount provided by Oceania Cruise Lines. By accepting this discount, you are able to select your own air travel carrier (times and dates) and use points and/or miles to pay for your air travel. Oceania is offering "Free Air" and Hotel promotions, however it is only available from limited cities, does not allow you to select your carrier/flights, and if you choose to arrive early in Barcelona or stay longer in Athens Oceania will charge an air deviation fee. Given these limitations, we are offering the cruise fare with the air credit discount already applied to allow flexibility in your air travel plans.
